SUNDAY REFLECTION

In my mother’s arms I learned my first prayers. A lullaby or a hymn sung softly in her soothing voice comforted my rest. From her heartfelt descriptions, I first learned about an all-important person she had defriended – someone called Jesus. I imagine it was our parents who first brought many of us to learn Bible stories and worship ion Christian community.

Matthew’s Gospel invites believers to live into that which we might hold for our biological families. Jesus calls us to serve others with unconditional love – concretely, he tells us, by giving a cup of cold water to “one of these little ones.”

Followers of Jesus are called to opt for a life practice more worthy, more selfless, more difficult, than we could ever imagine: to “take up” the “cross and follow me.” Whoever welcomes someone sent by the Lord welcomes the Lord himself. By responding to the cry of the poor and of the Earth, we “walk in the newness of life.”

The call of Jesus is not a call to negation of love of our parents: it is deeper – a renewed invitation. Today’s text challenges us to place the love of Jesus’ mission above all else. How will we respond to Jesus’ invitation to live a broader, more profound, more worthy love of God, today? Excerpt from Living with Christ.

DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

As we prepare to enter the month of June, traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Bishop Joseph Dabrowski invites all the faithful of the Diocese of Hamilton to renew this beautiful devotion. Rooted in the Gospel, devotion to the Sacred Heart draws us to contemplate the personal, healing, and transforming love of Christ. Please read our Bishop’s pastoral letter prayerfully and join us in this devotion.

We invite you to say at the beginning of each day this prayer:

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all of the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the holy sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in thanksgiving for your favours, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all my family and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father, Amen.

Additional prayers and resources for the Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus are available on the diocesan website: www.hamiltondiocese.com/sacredheart

PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH

Loving guidance and care for children by parents is a foundational principle of our Catholic teachings. In June we celebrate the Sacred Heart of Jesus, whose love and care taught us how to live and love in our lives. As summer approaches take some time to relax into the season with purpose. Show how to love by your interactions and activities: pray together daily, attend Mass even when you are away, read together, take time for hiking, have a family games nights, spend time preparing and cooking as a family, etc. Teaching how to love with the heart of Jesus happens through interaction and will help create loving, confident, healthy children

MEDITATIONS – HENRI NOUWEN SOCIETY

Heart Speaks to Heart

The spiritual life means that the Spirit of Love is given to us so that we can live with that Spirit within us. With that Spirit in us, we are able to recognize the same Spirit in the world. The Spirit blows where it wants, so the Spirit is everywhere. It's in the people who are dying, people with AIDS, people who are broken, and people with disabilities.

To watch for Christ in the world is to see that the spirit within us recognizes the Spirit among us so that the spirit speaks to Spirit, heart speaks to Heart, love speaks to Love. To watch for Christ is to be attentive to the presence of Christ in the world and in our heart. It's not a kind of emotional or intellectual gymnastics. If we carry God in our hearts, we see God in the world. “Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.”

- Psalm 90:2 Reflection Question: How might you recognize the Spirit in your world today?
